COMMERCIAL DESIGNERS MAKE ART FOR ART'S SAKE

This summer, Panzanella will host a juried exhibit of artwork by professional designers. We invite graphic designers, architectural designers, web, jewelry, textile, fashion, toy, book, video game designers, industrial, landscape, interior, theatrical, floral designers, and any other designers currently active in their fields to participate. Many designers started out with an impractical and irrepressible interest in visual art and artists. Drawn into the client-driven world of professional design by a desire to use creativity to earn a living and address real-life challenges, the people who work in design fields bring elegance, humor and ingenuity to their work, approach problems as puzzles, and make it fun for themselves and the users of their products. But, what of the fine artist within that designer, who paints on the weekends, or visits "art camp" for vacations? Please share the work of your inner fine artist with us in Panzanella's first Designer/Artist exhibit.

ABOUT THIS EXHIBIT OPPORTUNITY:

Designer/Artist will be on display in Panzanella from Monday, August 10 through Monday, October 12, 2009. The work submitted does not need to be recent, but it should be your personal work – not your design work. The artists whose work is selected will be contacted to arrange for delivery of artwork.
