Local Farms / Local Art

An Art Exhibit Celebrating the 15th Annual Piedmont Farm Tour

This spring, Panzanella will host a juried exhibit to explore what North Carolina artists create when the inspiration is local farming. Selected artists will be part of a 9-week exhibit of work based on NC farms. Farmers, farm families, crops, animals, landscapes, farm buildings and equipment are all possible subjects.

ABOUT THIS EXHIBIT OPPORTUNITY: This is our third year presenting the Local Farms/Local Art Exhibit. It will be displayed in Panzanella from April 13th through June 14th, 2010. While the Piedmont Farm Tour involves only farms within the Piedmont, the artwork may represent farm subjects anywhere in North Carolina. Artists must currently reside in North Carolina. The submissions will be reviewed by a screening panel of local art professionals. The artists whose work is selected will be contacted to arrange for delivery of artwork. All artwork will be insured for the duration of the exhibit, in accordance with Weaver Street Market policy. Panzanella is a part of the Weaver Street Market Cooperative, which is a founding sponsor of the Piedmont Farm Tour.

ENCLOSE IN A 10" X 13" ENVELOPE:

MORE ABOUT SUBMITTING WORK: Local Farms / Local Art

- Only work that is essentially 2-dimensional and can be hung on a wall will be considered. Accepted work must be delivered clean and ready to hang, labeled with title, artist's name, dimensions and price.
- All hanging hardware and picture wire must be secure. Work that is not ready for installation will not be accepted. Panzanella will not be responsible for work damaged due to faulty hanging hardware.
- Each piece will be positioned in Panzanella's dining room at the discretion of the installation committee.
- June 14th is the last day of the exhibit. All work must be picked up between 3 and 5 PM, on Monday, June 14, 2010, unless special arrangements have been made in advance with the Gallery Coordinator.
- A commission of 10% on any works sold during the exhibit is required. The commissions and entry fees go solely to an account that funds our Exhibits Program, making artist receptions and other services possible. (Artwork that is not for sale is also acceptable.)
- Weaver Street Market will generate publicity, host an artist reception at Panzanella, and create advertising and an exhibit brochure.
- If you have questions that you need answered before you submit your application and images, please contact:
Mary Votta, Exhibits Coordinator mary.v@weaverstreetmarket.coop
Please do not send large image files to this e-mail address.
